Stephen Galloway

Specialist Musculoskeletal Physiotherapist

'I see physiotherapy as a great opportunity to combine two of the things I am really passionate about; helping people and sport.'

Stephen gained his degree in Physiotherapy and his Post Grad Certificate in Sports Physiotherapy at Latrobe University, Melbourne. He is currently completing a Masters in Sports Physiotherapy.

Stephen's career highlights include: being a Physiotherapist for the Australian Orienteering Team at the World Orienteering Championships in Chambéry, France, 2011, being head Physiotherapist at Old Scotch Amateur Football Club in Melbourne from 2006 to 2010, and Head Physiotherapist at VAFA Representative U19 & U23 from 2009 to 2010 in Melbourne. Steve was also the winner of the Eliza McCauley Prize, having received the highest marks in Clinical Placements at Latrobe University, Melbourne, in 2005.

Stephen's special areas of interest include: the hip, shoulder and post-surgical rehabilitation. Steve is particularly interested in cricket, football, tennis and Aussie Rules football injuries.
