Annette Chase

Specialist Musculoskeletal Physiotherapist

Annette is an Australian trained Physiotherapist, graduating from the University of Sydney, and completing her masters of Sports Physiotherapy through La Trobe University, Melbourne. She has a long list of courses under belt which she uses to help her individualise her treatment approach to suit the client.

Annette has worked at many different clinics, including working as a manager in a practice in Tokyo. She has worked in many different areas of sport, including International Track and Field, Basketball, Golf, Ultimate Frisbee teams and she has also has worked extensively with National and Regional Rugby, Football and Netball. As Annette is a very keen sports woman herself, and has competed internationally as a runner in the past, she particularly loves to treat the athlete and peripheral injuries in particular.
